

Singing into the Unknown: An Invitation to Joy!

Songs and Reflections For A Changing Planet

Sandy Pliskin and Nancy Worthen warmly invite you to a special house concert featuring Betsy Rose,
Sunday, June 9, 3:30, in Cranston, RI.

Betsy Rose is a singer, songwriter and community activist whose insight, warmth, humor, wit & wisdom have added a wealth of songs to the world of folk and progressive music for over fifty years.

“Betsy Rose’s songs exquisitely merge the personal with the political. She has a unique ability to share her own spiritual journeys in ways that touch on the emotions and experiences we all have encountered. Betsy takes us to the events that cause us despair, and yet leads us to hope and community.” Sandy Pliskin, musical colleague and concert producer

From celebratory to grieving to faithful and grounded, Betsy’s original music and poetry speak to a time of disruption, loss, fear and confusion, in our own culture and around the world.

Her new program, Singing Into the Unknown, invites us to reimagine our ways of seeing the present and the future, and offers some guiding stars for navigating these stormy waters.

Betsy’s world view is deeply grounded in Buddhist practice and her long association with spiritual and thought leaders, including Joanna Macy and Thich Nhat Hanh.

Here’s a glimpse at what you might expect at her concert:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e118OLZcCIo&t=2197s>

Seating is limited. Suggested donation: $15-$30.

Contact Sandy (email: isaacp1@verizon.net ; text: 401-439-5685)
to reserve a seat and/or get location details. Allergy alert: we have 2 cats!